Alma Mater

Hail to thee, my Alma Mater,
May your colors ever fly,

Bringing memories together
Of our dear old Dover High.

May we honor and adore thee,
Live to your spirits real,

We will love, obey the colors
Of the cherry and the steel.

Softly as the evening shadows
Veil the scenes of Dover High

Come we loyal students ever,
With a song of praise so high.

We must never mar your pureness,
No, never till we die,

But always love and honor
Faithful dear old Dover High.

Yearbook Staff

One of the most important jobs of the Junior Class is the annual publication of the yearbook. The class puts complete faith in the members of the staff for a yearbook which the Juniors will be proud and which will be appreciated by all who read it.

Each member of the staff is given full responsibility for the job which has been assigned to him. This book will show how well the work of each staff member is carried out.

All members of the class, whether they had an assigned job or not, assisted in the success of this book. Some of these jobs were selling the yearbooks and giving them publicity.

To all the advertisers and patrons, the Juniors would like to say "Thank You." This edition of the Memoscope would not have been possible without their help. Elaine Smith was elected editor in-chief and Twila Wolf as Co-editor of the 1953 edition. Mr. Lester Gross is advisor of the publication of the Memoscope.

We the Juniors and the staff hope that this book will always be a prized possession to the Seniors and all the other subscribers.

June 24, 1925, found the school directors of Dover Borough and Dover Township meeting in joint session to discuss the starting of a three year course in a joint high school. This was the first joint school board formed in York County. It was decided to use two rooms of the Dover borough school building for high school purposes and purchase a portable building for the primary pupils of Dover Borough.

On February 17, 1928, the Dover Borough and Dover Township School Boards met to discuss building a four room high school building. It was decided by both boards to build a four room high school building, Dover Township paying 75% and Dover Borough paying 25%, this being the assessed valuation of both districts.

On the 14th day of June, 1949, the School Directors of Dover Borough and Dover Township met and signed Articles of Agreement to conduct the schools of the two districts, grade 1 to 12 inclusive, on a joint basis. The following directors signed the agreement: Dover Borough, Raymond E. Miller, President; N. M. Baughman, Secretary; Clarence R. Hughes, Harold F. Smith, and Curvin L. Berkheimer, Directors; Dover Township, Harry H. Leib, President; Lewis E. Slothower, Secretary; George C. Heilman, Claude E. May and Mildred K. Gerberick, Directors.

Mr. Carl Rauhauser, one of the directors of the school board, was present quite frequently at the school while the project of the new addition was being built. He reported the progress of the workmen and the way it was being accomplished.

Soccer Champs

Here is pictured the climax of the Eagles successful soccer campaign. Coach Harry Little is shown being carried to the locker rooms after the hardest fought game of the season. The feelings of the team in their moment of glory is captured by the picture shown above, taken seconds after the game.

The game between North York and Dover on our own field proved to be the decisive key to the York-Adams County Championship. They needed to win the game in order to take the Championship. For three quarters they fought on even ground until their efforts were finally rewarded. A free kick from the penalty area was made giving Dover a one point advantage. North York played a beautiful game but they failed to tally the needed point.

Once again the Dover Eagles came out on top, a victorious team with the reputation of being clean and courageous and a team second to none.

History of Class of '53

Chapter I

We the class of 1953 started our High School career with 70 members, consisting of 40 boys and 30 girls. We were divided into two rooms, 6 and 10, under the supervision of Mrs. Mabel Laird and Mr. Ray Bitting.

The first class meeting will long be remembered, for we elected the class officers: we elected David Garrett as class president, Paul Shellenberger, Vice-President, Julia Vanasdale as Secretary, Larry Spangler as Treasurer, and Roy Snyder as class Historian for four years. Mr. Harry Reber Jr. was chosen as our class advisor. Blue and Yellow were chosen as class colors, and red rose as class flower. "Strive to Win though the Odds be many," was chosen as our class motto.

As time passed on we lost quite a few classmates; they are as follows: Gloria Simmons, Lee Gross, Ray Dean Berkheimer, Miriam Ketterman, Robert Hollinger and Bruce Wylie. A few weeks after school had begun we welcomed into our class Joan Hevner and Franklin Bly.

We as freshmen sponsored the Christmas Party held in the auditorium for the entire school.

Chapter II

After 3 months vacation we returned to continue our juorney. As proud Sophomores at the first class meeting we elected class officers. President, Paul Shellenberger; Vice President, David Garrett; Secretary, Freda Eyster; Treasurer, June Kinsey. We were happy to welcome into our class Barbara Flinchbaugh, Kathryn Slonaker, William Nesbit, James Gembe and Betty Quickel. We were sad to see the following leave our class: Marie Crone, Barbara Kottmyer, George Harbold, Norma Livingston, Glenn Myers, King Westerhold, Herbert Smith, Doris Ott.

Also: Delores Brenneman, Theodore Shermeyer, William Bievenour, David Garrett, Norma Wilt, Roxie Ruppert, Geraldine Redding, Roy Synder, Carl Goodwin, Samuel Krout, George McCoy, Kenneth Miller, James Harbold, Harold Livingston, Francis Pressel, Sterling Williams, William Sowers.

Also: Mariam Seifert, Julia Vanasdale, Dorothy Myers, Mildred Weidner, Helen Miller and Nancy Evans.

The social event for the year was the Halloween party sponsored by the class to entertain the entire school.

Soon spring came and we bade farewell to Dover High until next fall.

Chapter III

After a very relaxing summer vacation we returned to Dover High. We could now hold our heads up high for we were now considered as upperclassmen.

The following officers were elected at our first class meeting: President, Paul Shellenberger; Vice-President, Beverly Garrett; Secretary, Seiglinde Miller; Treasurer, Larry Spangler; and Historian. Evelyn Gettys.

We welcomed into our class, Thomas Chronister, Seiglinde Miller, Charles Chronister, Clarence Dittenhafer and Gary Messerly. We were also sad to see Betty Quickel leave our class.

The class selected as a class play "A Case of Springtime" directed by Mr. Richard Walters, and it was presented in November.

This year the class took a trip too Gettysburg and Harrisburg. Thus after graduation exercises we became Seniors.

Chapter IV

With our heads held high we entered the halls of Dover High as Seniors.

With more things to look forward to than ever we elected the following officers: President, Beverly Garrett; Vice-President, June Kinsey; Secretary, Barbara Flinchbaugh; Treasurer, Clarence Dittenhafer.

We said goodby to: Joan Pyle, Evelyn Gettys and Freda Eyster.

This year we chose "My Cousin From Texas," as our class play and it was also directed by Mr. Richard Walters.

Next our pictures were taken, and later we chose our commencement announcements and name cards.

A skating party, initiation of the freshman and planning our graduation exercises kept us very busy. We also spent three wonderful days in New York and saw a court session at Harrisburg.

Now we have completed our four years at Dover High School. They were filled with both work and play. Here we spent the best four years of our lives. We are very sad to leave but with all the wonderful and exciting times to look back on we the class of '53 bid farewell to Dover High School.

Beverly Garrett, President.

Senior Class Prophecy

As the sands of time slowly move on I can look into my crystal ball and see the future of my classmates.

I see Dolliemae Anderson, with her needle and thread sewing together the most popular fashions of the year. Who should be her model but June Kinsey. June is better known to her classmates as the airline hostess on T. W. A. airlines.

I can see black and blond haired children. Who could they belong to? I finally see, they are the children of none other than Mary Flohr and Thomas Chronister. Opposite the home of Mary and Tom, I see a man teaching boys about land conservation, and of course it is none other than their agriculture teacher, Charles Chronister.

While leaving my crystal ball to go for some nourishment. I happened to stop in at a dairy for my daily supply of milk. While waiting awhile, I soon saw Shirley Lamparter come thru the doors. I was soon informed that her name had been changed to Mrs. John Bupp. She was co-owner of the dairy. I heard a car whizz by and of course I instantly knew it was our speed king, Robert Frey, and also his side kicks Dale and Dean Crone. After leaving the dairy I went to a night club.

I saw Phyllis Gerber and I also was informed that she had changed her name to Mrs. James Gallagher. While in the night club I heard a very sweet voice, instantly I knew it was Sieglinde Miller, the songstress of our class. I also saw that the leader of the band was none other than our musical talented boy, Clair Krone. A baton in Clair's hand looked very natural. Who puts the bottom in Clair's music? No one but Paul Shellneberger. I see he takes time off from teaching to play his horn in a night club.

After leaving the night club I went back to my crystal ball for my evening session of future gazing. I see Larry Spangler, the brainstorm of our class, in his self owned business office dictating a letter to his secretary, Barbara Flinchbaugh.

Now I see a laboratory and of course the top men are none other than James Stott and James Mummert.

Now I see a most beautiful home. It is none other than the home of the most popular guy of our class, Clarence Dittenhafer. I see he also has become an agriculture teacher.

What do we have here? A beauty contest. I see the judges are none other than James Gembe, Nelson Zinn, Luther Stoppard and Donald Baughman.

I see a man all full of grease. Who can it be? Of course—Glenn Eisenhart. Glenn has really learned to be a good mechanic.

I see a sign out in front of a house. On it is written in big gold letters "Hively." I see who it is, none other than our own Julia Drawbaugh. Julia is washing a small baby. I see that all the time spent in Home Economics has benefited her.

I see a gymnasium class in action. Who is their teacher? Of course you know, none other than our Sound Off queen, Delores Krone.

Now a farm house appears. I see that the mistress of the house is sitting on the porch. She is none other than Maryellen Shearer.

I see two clowns. I can't quite make out who they are. But wait—now I know—they're Leroy Spahr and Raymond Lease, the clowns of our class.

Over there is a sign swinging. I see it has on its "Models Needed." Who could be the proprietors but Gary Firestone and Gary Messerly? They always were able to pick out a nice girl when they saw one.

Now my scene in my crystal ball goes to a candy shop. I see Kathryn Slonaker and Ruth Crone making the candy and a tall black-haired man selling it. I wonder who he is. Of course, he's our own Weldon Seifert. The buyer at the candy shop is Joan Hevner. Joan always was on the slender side.

What do we have here? It's as quiet as quiet can be. I see why. It's David Jacobs and Shirley Ruppert, the quietest boy and girl in the class.

As for me, I have become a Colonel in the Women Marine Corps. My ambition has led to my success as I know my classmates' ambitions have led to theirs.

Beverly Garrett

Senior Class Will and Testament

This is the last will and testament of the class of '53." We hope that all future Senior Classes will take to heart the things written here and not think too harshly of us.

To the present Junior Class we will all the good times we had during our Senior year. We hope they have as much fun as we did.

To the present Sophomore Class we bequeath all of our new found joy at finding you're finally going to become upper classmen.

To the present Freshmen Class we give our pencils, pens, and books. Take good care of them.

To the in-coming Freshmen Class our sympathy. But take courage, it only lasts one year.

To the teachers of Dover High School we give our sincere gratitude for the time and trouble they took to guide us through the past four years.

The individual bequeaths are as follows:

To Louise Moul passes Dolliemae Anderson's ability to cook, although I believe Louise is doing well already.

Donald Baughman leaves to Gerald Myers the job he had as mailman for the office almost every evening.

Charles Chronister bequeaths his pleasing personality to Ralph Crane.

To Alfred Heagy passes Thomas Chronister's quietness. Maybe that will get you higher grades in some classes, Al.

Dale Crone leaves his speeding record to William Rodgers. "Step on the gas," Will.

To Rosalyn Naylor passes Ruthanna Crone's excitement at taking her driver's test. Don't surprise the policeman the way Ruth did.

Clarence Dittenhafer bequeaths his popularity to Philip Snyder who's doing well on his own.

Gayle Emig gets Julia Drawbaugh's ability to go steady.

To Stanley Baldwin goes Glenn Eisenhart's excellent typing ability. Stanley has been doing very well.

Gary Firestone who is always reading, passes his books to Wayne Latchaw. Enjoy yourself, Wayne.

Barbara Flinchbaugh wills some extra height to Yvonne Rentzel.

Mary Flohr, who is always blushing for some reason or other, leaves this to Elsie Wunsch.

Robert Frey leaves his mischievousness and his ability to cheer Mrs. Kunkel on "blue" days to Larry Dennis. Good Luck, Larry.

Doris Garrett, who is following in her sister's footsteps, gets Beverly Garrett's athletic ability.

Paul Brenneman gets all of James Gembe's girl friends. It seems James has been tutoring Paul as his replacement.

Phyllis Gerber leaves the "Royal" typewriter she used in typing class to her sister, Ruth Gerber.

Shirley Lamparter bequeaths her cheerleading ability to Twila Wolf. Keep up the school spirit, at those soccer and basketball games, Twila.

Raymond Leese leaves his slight height to Charles Keener, a newcomer in the Junior Class.

Joan Hevner will take a few inches off of Fay Glass's height by giving Fay her politeness.

David Jacobs will give the rabbits he got this year to Carson Smith and hopes Carson equals his record in the future.

June Kinsey wills her librarian post to Marian Meisenhelter who may follow June in being head librarian next year.

Clair Krone leaves his ability in the band and orchestra to Laverne Weaver.

To Ellen Remmey goes a few of Delores Krone's extra pounds. Eat three square meals a day, Ellen, and this may be achieved.

Gary Messerly's artistic ability he leaves to Richard Smith. The proud title of senior Michaelangelo is yours, Richard.

Elaine Smith is the lucky heiress of Sieglinde Miller's musical talent. Too bad everyone can't be this lucky.

James Mummert gives all the cars he drove to school to James Pressel, it's not everyday a person inherits about ten cars at one time.

Larry Spangler leaves his Distinguished Honor Roll record to Dean Rinehart. You're going to have to work pretty hard next year, Dean.

In the French department we find our expert, Shirley Ruppert. She leaves this knowledge to Ladora Miller. Have fun translating, Ladora.

Luther Stoppard is being very kind in willing Ray Gross his bookkeeping ability. Ray dosen't seem to enjoy himself in that class.

Paul Shellenberger wills Gordon Thompson his ahtletic ability. Gordon will be the star athlete next year on his own right.

Robert Roller, I believe, will be very happy in receiving James Stott's head for chemistry. I'm sure Robert will be very appreciative.

Weldon Seifert bequests to Ray Holtzapple the deer he saw this year. Try shooting one next year, Ray.

Maryellen Shearer's sweet personality is passed on to Carolyn March, who already is a very sweet person.

Kathryn Slonaker gives her giggle to Irene Raffensberger. The teacher will think "Kathy" is still in the room next year.

Leroy Spahr passes his ability to play soccer to Curtis Spangler.

To Richard Deisinger, Nelson Zinn bequeaths his seat at the back of every classroom. This will give both you and the teachers a change, Richard.

The Senior class will now pass on in silence after having willed these traits of character and ability to do different things to their friends and fellow schoolmates.

Class Poem

From the halls of Dover High,
Our class graduates this year,
And as one by one we leave our school,
We shall perhaps shed a tear.

At first we raised the teacher's rile,
And spent all our time in fun,
But as the years progressed along,
They kept us on the run.

We saw in soccer and basketball,
The school win honors great,
At dances and parties we raised the roof,
And went to bed so late.

If we could remain in this bright life,
And harass the teachers with pranks,
We'd live a life content and free,
And never a way with strife.

June Kinsey and Larry Spangler.

Class Song

Tune (Good Night Sweetheart)

Farewell, Dover, we shall soon be leaving,
All fond memories to us will be cleaving.
Tears and parties may make us forlorn,
But with our class—a new hope is born.
(So we'll say) : Farewell, Dover, we will always miss you,
Farewell, Dover, still to you we'll be true,
When times are blue, we'll try to see them through.
Farewell, Dover, farewell.

Farewell, Dover, now we have to leave thee,
Do not ever let our parting grieve thee.
Joys and memories may make us all mourn,
But with the dawn—a new career is born.
(So we'll say) : Farewell, Dover, tho' we're not beside you,
Farewell, Dover, still our ways will guide you.
Schemes enfold you, in each one we'll hold you,
Farewell, Dover, farewell.

We chose red and white as the class colors, the white carnation as our class flower and our motto is: "Co-operation is our goal."

Some of the activities that we as Freshmen engaged in were a skating party and a Christmas party which was held in the auditorium for the entire school.

We ended the school year by taking a trip to Hershey.

Chapter 2

After a few months vacation we again entered the familiar halls of Dover Hi. We are now Sophomores.

At our first class meeting we elected Donald Eckenrode as president; Ladora Miller as vice president; Elaine Smith as secretary; Richard Smith as treasurer; and Yvonne Shaffer as historian. Mr. Paul Hoke was retained as class advisor.

Some of the special events that took place during our Sophomore year were a skating party, bake sale, Freshman-Sophomore Hop, and a Hallowe'en party which was held in the auditorium for the entire school.

Senior Class Play

The senior play was a three act comedy called "My Cousin From Texas", which was written by Pete Williams. The play begins as Sheila Scott is about to be married to Preston Rodgers; she is not very excited about it because she can't erase from her mind the memory of Johnny Benton, a young man she'd known for a brief two weeks during her summer vacation.

It is the day before her wedding; the Scotts are expecting a visit from "Cousin Tommy" from Texas, whom they've never seen before. Johnny arrives at the house, is mistaken for "Cousin Tommy" and decides to carry on the masquerade. He convinces Sheila, they have to postpone her wedding. Their efforts to do this provide several exciting scenes. Cactus Kelly, a cowboy, appears. Johnny believes Cactus is "Cousin Tommy"; so he passes Cactus off as his twin brother "Timmy". Everything's going smoothly, when the real "Cousin Tommy" shows up in person as Tomasina, a beautiful young girl; Johnny claims her as a relative, telling others they are triplets. Tommy, Timmy and Tomasina.

The funniest colored characters are Peaceful Johnson, the Scott's maid and Johnny's valet, Eshew Smith.

Finally as the story ended everything was straightened of all concerned.

It was presented November 29, 1952, at 7:30 P. M. under the direction of Mr. Richard E. Walters.

Junior Class Play

"Beauty and the Beef," a three-act comedy, was chosen by the Juniors as their class play and was presented in the Dover High School auditorium.

The story centers around Ginny who hopes her past on a quiz program will be a closed book now that they have moved to a small town. "Beef," who is captain of the football team, has already offered to help her with her history, which he can easily do since he's been working off a condition in the subject. Ginny's brother is on her side; he's sick of being the brother of the child wonder. In fact, Lester is out to make the school band. Since he knows nothing of music, he has picked out the bass drum as his instrument. Anyone, he says, can play a bass drum, and he demonstrates with the potato masher and a pan cover. Now, if he can only get hold of a bass drum! It turns out that Molly Woods' dad owns one, and from then on Less is out to bribe Molly into sneaking it out, which she finally does, with terrific and utterly unforeseen results. Ginny knows her dad is her chief danger, for he likes to brag of her record. He almost spills the secret in a talk with "Beef," but remembers just in time. Beef sees Ginny's prize cup and discovers that the girl he's been "helping" is really tops in the field. Beef leaves, and Ginny, walking in all dressed up for her date, is heart-broken. They enter into many catastrophies when Beef is suspended from school and the team can't win the big game without him. They get the game postponed by putting epicac in the teams cocoa—and what a razzle-dazzle that scene is! But horrors!—that stunt almost gets them into trouble with the law! Maybe they aren't so brainy after all! Still, it's all straightened out at the final curtain, and Ginny has her dates with Beef.

This heart-warming play was directed by Mr. Richard Walters, the Junior Class advisor.

Magazine Captains

"We did it again." That was the statement made by many students of Dover High School after the results of the annual magazine campaign were compiled and announced in early October. What these students meant was that our school has exceeded their goal of $3,000.00 by more than $1,500.00.

The compiling of these results and the daily recording of magazine transactions were done by a group of magazine captains. This group consisted of two people from every room in the grades from seven to twelve. They were advised by Mr. Walters and Mr. Robert Miller in the recording of all essential information.

The work done by the captains consists of recording amounts of magazine subscriptions and money collected for them. These amounts must be recorded under name of the student who sells the subscriptions so that the winner of individual prizes can be determined. Records are also kept for each class so that the winner of cash prizes can be determined. The high salesman for this year was Raymond Langoine and the Freshman Class won the first cash prize of $100.00.

Total receipts for the campaign were $4600.00. Of this amount, $1500.00 was school profit.

After the campaign, which lasted two weeks, the magazine captains were treated to ice cream and soda. Just think, all words and no treat makes a magazine captain a dull person.

F. F. A.

One of the most active and beneficial organizations in the school is the F. F. A. This group belongs to a national organization established in 1928 by and for all the boys of America studying vocational agriculture. The aim of the F. F. A. is the development of agriculture leadership, co-operation, and citizenship. The colors adopted by the F. F. A. are National Blue and Comb Gold and their motto is: "Learning to do, doing to learn, earning to live, living to serve."

The National Emblem of the Future Farmers of America is significant and meaningful in every detail, used by members in all recognized units of the organization. It is made up of five symbols, the plow, the owl, and the rising sun, within the cross section of an ear of corn which is surmounted by the American Eagle. Upon the face of the emblem appear also the words, "Vocational Agriculture," and the letters "F. F. A."

Each year librarians are selected from the Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. The librarians have various duties as, repairing old books, stamping and cataloguing new books, collecting dues and keeping the shelves and filing cabinets in order.

Band

Had you attended Open House at the Dover Joint High School Building you would have heard music pouring through the building. This was the music of the Dover High School Band. This was their first public appearance for the 1952-53 term. The band under the direction of Mr. Harry C. Reber Jr., the music supervisor of Dover High, made their next public appearance in the Christmas Program.

The band which was formed a few years ago is making very good progress. One practice session is held each week on Tuesday in activity period. The band was on hand at the soccer games played on our home field to help spur the boys to the championship. Also the band participated at a few of the pep rallies held in the gymnasium. They also did their part by playing at the District 3 play-off soccer game.

The band has a membership of 32.

Jr. High Basketball

The Dover Junior High Basketball Team again participated in the York County Junior High Basketball League. Mr. Richard E. Walters took over as coach for the 1952-53 season.

Although unsuccessful in previous seasons the team looked good in pre-season workouts in which 10 boys were selected for the varsity squad. This year as never previously done a reserve squad was picked. The teams journeyed to Mt. Wolf, Spring Grove, Kennard-Dale, North York, West York, Susquehannock, Red Lion, Dallastown, and Mt. Rose.

The boys won their first league game in a walk-a-way from Kennard-Dale. But seemingly to fall back into their old rut the boys lost the next four games. All but three of the games were played at 4 P. M. As always boys from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades turned out.

Boy's Senior High Basketball

The saying, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again," is being applied by many of the boys at Dover High School this year. After experiencing several unsuccessful seasons with the Eagles of our school, many lettermen of previous Junior and Senior high basketball teams are going to try to make a go of it again this year.

A late season surge of last season has spirited many members of the team. During that surge, the Eagles broke a long string of consecutive defeats that lasted several years of York County Scholastic competition with a very decisive victory over Kreutz Creek. After that win, the team began to equal their opponents, but would lose by close margins.

A more rigid schedule is faced by a highly determined group of boys this year. Pre-season practice sessions show that the Dover Eagles are going to fight hard through twenty scheduled games in the York County Scholastic League from December 2, through February 24. Opposition for this year will be furnished by: Kennard-Dale, North York, Wrightsville, Manchester, Spring Grove, West York, Kreutz Creek, Susquehannock, Red Lion and Dallastown. Red Lion is the defending champion.

Games are scheduled for Tuesday and Friday nights with each team meeting all others twice during the campaign. Ten games will be played on the home courts and the remaining ten will be played on the floors of the opposition.

Coach Harry Little will be leading the team during his second year at the school. Coach Little and the team are sure to work hard for the good of Dover High School.

Win or lose, this is our team.

Junior High Track

The Junior High Track team has won honors for Dover High in previous years.

The Junior Track team composed of Norma Miller, Mae Spahr, Shirley Flohr, Jane Lankford, Donna Shorb and Ruth Wire won top honors in 1950.

This track team is building up and gradually will reach the top. This girls Junior High team placed second in the York County Field Meet held at Small's Athletic Field in 1951. Virginia Brown, Gayle Emig, Mildred Stare and Twila Wolf composed the 1951 Junior High team.

In the 1952 Field Meet the following girls won honors in the Junior High Events:

Shuttle Relay

Kathryn Seifert, Evelyn Lentz, Nancy Bievenour, Shelia Van Pelt ..... Placed 4th

Girls Senior High Track

The Girls Senior High Track team was not as fortunate this year as they have been in the past, although in the past the Girls Senior High Track Team has done very well.

Although in the past the girls Senior High Track team has done very well.

In 1946, 1947 and 1949 the girls won the York County Championship track title. The girls who brought a joyous victory to Dover in 1947 were Loris Baublitz, Jean Eisenhart, Luella Leibenknecht, Arla Spahr, Betty Stambaugh and Ruby Yankey.

Victorious in 1949 were Loris Baublitz, Jean Eisenhart, Louise Frey, Jeanne Gross, Phyllis Smith, Helen Snelbecker, Grace Spahr and Ruth Wire.

The Dover Senior High Track team participated in the annual York County Track meet, held at Small's Athletic Field in May 1952.

Although the Senior High Track team did not win the Championship the girls did rather well.

Soccer

Mr. Harry Little coached his first Championship team to victory this year as the Dover Eagles took the York-Adams County Scholastic Soccer title. The first game was played against Dillsburg on their field. The game resulted in a 4-4 deadlock. Our second game also ended in a tie when we played host to Manchester. The first victory of the season came when the Eagles invaded East Berlin, with a 3-0 victory. The fourth game was played against Spring Grove and Dover took its second consecutive victory. North York was next, played on their field, but once again Dover returned victorious, and at the same time were tied for first place. The next game was played here, and we lost to Dillsburg 1-0. Manchester once again came out ahead with a one point margin and took the game. The seventh game of the season was played on our field against East Berlin and again Dover was victorious.

The two following games proved to be a decisive factor in Dover's winning the Championship. The game against Spring Grove was another evenly matched contest but Dover came out ahead 3-1. The last game was played against North York on our field. The score of that game was 1-0 in favor of Dover. Dover had won the York-Adams County Championship.

The first Play-off game was played against Mt. Joy at Dover. The contest was fought on even terms until the fourth period when Mt. Joy scored a point from scrimmage. The Eagles tried to come back but were not successful.

Even so it can be said that the squad worked very hard and proof of this is seen in their winning the local championship. Much credit must be given to Coach Little who spent much time working with the boys and also whose inspiration led them to victory.

Baseball

The Dover High Baseball Team has found the going rough in the York County Scholastic Baseball League for the past few years, managing only to win two games during the last two seasons. Part of the reason for this was that last season saw practically all new faces on the field for Dover. Nevertheless the boys gained much needed experience last year and are expected to give a better account of themselves in this 1953 season.

Last year the York County Scholastic League was divided into two sections, the Northern and Southern. Dover competed in the Southern Division with such teams as Dillsburg, Lower Chanceford, Spring Grove, and Kreutz Creek. Spring Grove was the Southern Division last year.

Last year's players were Thompson, Smith, R. Snyder, Lauer, P. Snyder, Spahr, Gettys, Eckenrode, Crane, Walker and Gembe. The main strength of this team will be held over for the 1953 season since only one varsity berth has been vacated due to graduation. Our center fielder, Lester Walker, was the only player to graduate last year. Lester also served as a pitcher on several occasions.

With most of the team returning from last year, we can raise our eyebrows in expectation of better things for 1953.

Volleyball

"Hey Sue. Where are you going in such a rush?"

"Oh, Hi Lou. I'm going to volleyball practice. You're coming, too, aren't you?"

"Well, I don't know. I was out for it last year when we first started a team, but I warmed the bench at most of the games."

"But you were only a Freshman who had never played before. You'll do lots better this year."

"I don't know. Who else is reporting for practice?"

"Probably Delores Krone, Beverly Garrett, June Kinsey, Louise Moul, Twila Wolf, Louise Wire, Mildred Stare, Jocelyn Spoon, Carolyn Wintermyer, Gayle Emig and Elsie Wunsch. They played last year. And of course there will be some Jr. High girls also."

"That sounds like a swell gang. Yes, by gum, I am going out for it. And this year I bet we'll get the championship."

"Hope you're right, but remember we'll have to beat Dillsburg and North York as well as all the other teams in the league."

"I know that North York team was pretty tough but with Mrs. Ortman coaching us and so many of last year's varsity teams out again I don't see how we can lose."

"If everybody has your team spirit I don't see how we can lose either. That is if the players would report for practice instead of standing around talking about it."

"O. K. Lou, I can take a hint. Let's go."

Girls Basketball

Dear Reader,

Do you know who the girls on the above picture are? That's right. They're Beb Garrett, Delores Krone, June Kinsey, Gayle Emig, etc. But also they are members of the Dover High girl's basketball team, which has been victorious so many years. The 1951-52 team, following tradition, secured the title by winning all but one league game.

This year the York County Girls Basketball League includes Dallastown, Susquehannock, West York, North York, Kennard Dale and Dover. Two games are played with each of these schools. There was also two non-league exhibition games played with New Oxford.

In addition to the girls pictured above, Madelyn Wintermyer, Jocelyn Spoon, Joyce Miller, Mildred Stare, Nancy Bievenour, Nancy McKinney, Shirley Miller, and Martha Sowers have reported to practice.

Some of the girls would be on the Junior High team if there was one. However because of lack of interest in many of the schools, the Junior High League was dissolved last fall. Therefore these girls come to practice in order to be better equipped to play when they reach Senior High. This year they will form a reserve team.

To Mrs. Ortman, who is again spending so much time and effort coaching, the team owes its technical ability and much of its fighting spirit. Above all it is through her diligent efforts and splendid example that the girls acquired their habits of good sportsmanship, and for this they are thoroughly grateful.

The girls hope that by combining fine playing ability with teamwork and good sportsmanship they will again lead the Cherry and Steel Banners to victory this year.

Sincerely, A Player.

Senior High Cheerleaders

This year Dover High was again proud to have active cheerleaders for their sports. After a few practices, called by Mrs. Helen Ortman, the advisor, in the beginning of the school term Shirley Lamparter, Sieglinde Miller, Twila Wolf, Gayle Emig, Joann Miller and Ladora Miller were chosen to cheer for the soccer games. They helped arouse the interest of the student body for games by having pep rallys in the auditorium in which all of the students took a rousing part, cheering and singing school songs led by the six girls.

They taught them new songs and also new cheers which proved to be very encouraging to the players when there was a game. They acted as hostesses when visiting pupils came to Dover High directing them to the place they wished to go.

Whenever there was an important game to be played the cheerleaders plan something in order to get the pupils anxious and excited, so they want to go to the game and support the team.

When the girls in their attractive red and gray uniforms were out front leading the cheers and songs with the sutdent body's fine co-operation, that is when we proved to have good school spirit and sportsmanship.

The Senior High Cheerleaders are Shirley Lamparter, Sieglinde Miller, Twila Wolfe, Gayle Emig, Joann Miller, Ladora Miller, Julene Bentz, Doris Snelbecker, Millicent Herman, Nancy McKinney, Margaret Ketterman, and Louise Moul.

Absent when the picture was taken were Donna Gettys and Irene Smith.

Jr. High Cheerleaders

When these cute gals run up on the stage and start yelling cheers, the entire student body really gets hep. And by the time the pep meeting is over and everyone sings the Alma Mater, the team is so sure of a victory that almost nothing can stop them, they think.

There are seven junior high cheerleaders. They work in groups of four, with the captain, Judy Eisenhart, cheering so that when the season opens, everyone will have cheered for half the games, thus enabling each girl to get her letter.

Junior High Cheerleaders cheer for all twenty Junior High games of which some are played at four o'clock and some at 7 P. M. Although these girls cheer only at basketball games they are in line for a varsity position on the Senior High squad in future years.
